

International Professor Program – East China University of Political Science and Law
(ECUPL)
(For Global Partner Institutions)

Program Overview

East China University of Political Science and Law (ECUPL), a leading institution in China's legal education landscape, is proud to launch its International Professor Program to foster global academic collaboration. Since its inception in 2016, this initiative has successfully hosted many distinguished scholars worldwide, enriching our academic community with cutting-edge international perspectives.

Aligned with China's national strategy to enhance higher education globalization, this program aims to:

- Integrate world-class expertise into ECUPL's interdisciplinary research and teaching.
- Cultivate students' global competence through immersive cross-cultural learning.
- Strengthen ECUPL's partnerships with top-tier universities and research institutions.

Host Institution:

East China University of Political Science and Law (ECUPL)

Visit Duration:

Minimum 2 weeks, maximum 8 weeks (must cover ≥ 32 teaching hours).

Visit Timing:

Flexible scheduling, subject to school arrangements.
Application Deadline for 2027 Intake: November 6, 2026.

Teaching/Required Activities:

Mandatory: Deliver one complete course (≥ 32 hours) in English or another foreign language.
Optional: Participate in academic seminars, mentor young faculty/graduate students.

Academic Fields:

The program is open to a broad range of fields, with priority given to disciplines aligned with national strategies and Shanghai's development needs. These include, but are not limited to:

- Traditional Legal Disciplines: International Law, Jurisprudence, Civil Law, Criminal Law, etc.
- Emerging Disciplines: Social Governance Law, Science & Technology Law, Digital Law, Climate Law, Ocean Law, etc.
- Emerging Interdisciplinary Fields: Discipline Inspection and Supervision, Area Studies, Science & Technology Law, Digital Law, Foreign-Related Law, etc.

Eligibility:

- Applicants must hold an associate professorship or higher (or equivalent) at a recognized university or research institution.

- Applicants should demonstrate a strong international academic background and notable achievements in their respective fields.
- Individuals from all nationalities are welcome. Openness to international academic cooperation and an inclusive, collaborative attitude are essential.

Funding Coverage:

International Travel: Economy-class round-trip tickets (reimbursed upon actual cost).

Teaching Fee: 600 RMB/hour.

Accommodation: Reimbursed based on institutional standards (monthly/weekly limits provided in advance).

Application Process:

-Submit to the International Exchange Center:

CV (must hold at least Assistant Professor or equivalent position);

Proposed course description (bilingual, follow Attachment format);

Application Form(see attachment)

-Host school reviews and submits to International Exchange Center (Ms. Hua TIAN);

-ECUPL evaluates and notifies results.

-Visit dates are flexible, subject to mutual agreement between the visiting professor and the relevant ECUPL faculty. Specific dates will be coordinated post-acceptance.

Application Timeline:

Annual deadline: November 6.

Results announced around January 2027 .

Contact & Additional Info:

Coordinator: Ms. Hua TIAN (International Exchange Center)

Email: tianhua@ecupl.edu.cn

Phone: +86-21-62071025

Download Templates:

Application Form

Course Description Template

Notes:

-Local teaching assistants will be assigned to ensure smooth delivery.

-Candidates are expected to demonstrate a commitment to international collaboration.

For any further questions or clarifications, please contact the ECUPL International Center as listed above.